

The UK Coaching Certificate L1

Would you like to train to become a riding instructor?

On the 8th March 2012 we are offering a great opportunity for you to learn the skills and techniques to be able to teach and to gain experience and confidence.

What is involved?

- It is a 10 week course (2hours per week) starting on the 8th March.
- Completion of a portfolio.
- A final assessment.

On successful completion of the course you will awarded your UKCC L1 qualification yours for only £300

BHS membership is required; if you are not a member we can advise you on how to become one.

The UKCC course is a great way to gain the skills required and the confidence to organise, plan, set up and conduct coaching sessions.
